

Please protect New Jersey's Do Not Call legislation so that our citizens can live unencumbered by constant solicitation. For years we have suffered with constant interruptions to family time and invasions into our privacy. Do Not Call legislation sends an important message to companies to rethink their marketing strategies and the message should not be co-opted by the federal government. New Jersey citizens should have the right to make their voice heard by industry!